"MADAME BUTTERFLY" AND "ONLY MASTER SHALL BLAME."

Kipling's L'Envoi, "Only The Master Shall Blame," suggests the name and kind greeting awaits her this evening. The sales for all the performances have been very large and to those who desire to witness something out of the usual had better secure good locations from Wall-Nichols Co., Ltd.

The bill tonight will include "Madame Butterfly," making a double bill of exceptional interest.

TRAGEDY IN A CITY KITCHEN

Chinese Cook Inflicts Mortal
Wounds Upon a Yardboy
With a Long Fork.

By a thrust of a three-pronged kitchen fork yesterday at noon, the Chinese cook at Jack Luca's residence, on King street, mortally wounded the Chinese yard boy, while both were in the kitchen. Dr. Walters was called to attend the wounded man, and pronounced him in a critical condition as a result of the wounds received. He was taken last evening to the Queen's Hospital, where he now lies near death.

The Chinese cook disappeared immediately after the affray, and has not been found by the police department up to the present time, although dilig-gent search has been made for him. His usual haunts are being watched, and it is believed that he will be apprehended today. From the story of the wounded man it appears that the latter came into the kitchen about noon for his lunch. An altercation occurred, hot words were bandied between the two men, resulting in the cook making a sudden onslaught on the yard boy, who was unarmed, and inflicting three wounds directly in the abdomen. The prongs of the fork penetrated some distance, and the yard boy fell to the floor unconscious. The wounded man was not removed from the residence during the afternoon, owing to his critical condition, but later in the day Dr. Walters deemed it advisable to place him under the care of the surgeons and nurses at the hospital, where he could receive constant attention.
